Queen Elizabeth II 1926 - 2022

Dear Friends

The Harvest of our Lives

We were all saddened when we heard of the death of Her Late Majesty, Queen Elizabeth. An astonishing 90% of the population have never known life without Queen Elizabeth II on the throne. The remaining 10% will have been 70 years younger than they are now when King George VI was on the throne. As the news broke, and in the days to follow, many stories were told, personal as well as official, of the encounters The Queen had had with the 31% of the population.

It was a time of reflection and remembering. A time to give thanks for a long life well lived. A time to assess the astonishing impact of The Queen's reign. It was, in a sense, a time to appreciate and assess the harvest of a much-loved Queen.

We are quite used, especially in this area, to assessing the Harvest. Has it been a good year with warmth, sunshine and rain in the right amounts and the right order? Too little water and the grain (fruit and vegetables) don't swell, and some grow wonky. Too much water and the crops rot in the ground. It is obvious to assess in the size and quality of the yield. It should be an obvious comparison, but how often do we think of our lives as a field to be harvested?

Are we receiving the right amount of encouragement, love, wholesome inputs of information from the internet, books and the company? Are we producing good quality fruit which benefits the world in which we live and makes life better for those around us?

The life of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth has born a rich harvest. She has improved the lives of those she met and of her citizens both in the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth immeasurably. The secret of that harvest, as she has not been shy of telling us in recent years, has been her deeply rooted faith in Jesus Christ. The fruit of The Queen's life has grown in the soil of bible reading, prayer and obedience to Jesus Christ.

As we continue to reflect on the life of Queen Elizabeth II, we can use the opportunity to look at our own lives and ask what we can do to improve the quality of the harvest of our own lives.

Yours in The Lord of the Harvest,

Revd Anne

Darnhall Show Donation

Darnhall Show, held on 9th July 2022, was a great community event with the Rose Queen, dancers, tractors, stalls, dog shows and competitions that are the backbone of village shows across the country. It was a fun day, held on a glorious summer afternoon, and attended by people from Darnhall, Winsford and the wider area. All this traditional fun and activity raised money for the Darnhall Village Hall and charity.

Sue and Richard Langley were hoping to raise funds on behalf of Prostate Cancer UK, and those local people who attended the show and contributed to its success have helped to raise a fabulous £500 for the charity. The cheque was presented to Prostate Cancer UK on 6th September 2022 to enable their research and support of men [and their families] with this diagnosis to continue.

Thank you to everybody involved, particularly to Richard and Sue and Darnhall Village Hall.

Darnhall Brownies

Darnhall Brownies restarted in September after the summer break. They meet every Wednesday evening during term time from 6.15pm until 7.30pm in Darnhall Village Hall. For their first meeting they enjoyed a variety of games, discussed activities they would like to take part in over the next few weeks and enjoyed talking about 'The area in which we live'. If you would like to join them, or for any further information, please contact Ann Hignett (01270 528311).

Saint Francis of Assisi

On 4th October it is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi, one of the most well known of all saints. He is the Patron Saint of Italy, along with St Catherine of Siena. He was born in 1181, named Giovanni, but known as Francesco to his family. It was a wealthy family, and he lived the typical life of a wealthy young man, but beneath this was a concern for poorer people. In 1202 he was involved in a military expedition, imprisoned and became ill. On release from prison, he left behind his former life to 'marry' Lady Poverty. Following a vision of Christ asking him to repair My Church he lived as a beggar rebuilding ruined chapels, including St. Mary of the Angels near Assisi.

In 1208 he started preaching and established a new religious order with 11 followers. This was the Franciscan Order. Soon a local noblewoman, Clare of Assisi, joined the followers and established her own order of The Poor Clares. A third order, now known as the Secular Franciscan Order, was created for lay people. Taking his beliefs to the wider world Francis travelled to Egypt during the Fifth Crusade to try to convert the Sultan to Christianity. Although that was not achieved the Sultan allowed him to travel to Jerusalem and other Holy sites. From 1217 Franciscans have been in Christian sacred sites and are known as the Custodians of the Holy Land for the Catholic Church.

Francis is best known for his love of the natural World and praised the Sun, Moon, Water, Wind, Earth and Fire. He is often pictured with a bird following the legend that he preached to trees full of birds. In 1220 he celebrated Christmas with the first Nativity scene created from a straw filled manger with a real donkey and ox standing beside it. Today this love of animals is celebrated by the blessing of pets in church on his feast day of 4th October. A further honour was the creation of Francis as the Patron Saint of Ecology on 29th November 1979 by Pope John Paul II.

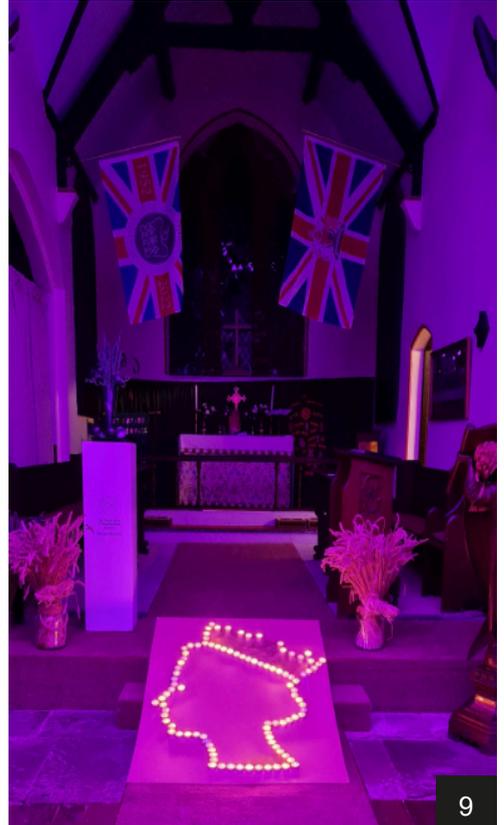

In September 1224 Francis was praying when he received the stigmata – the mark of Christ's wounds on the Cross. He became ill and did not respond to treatment, eventually dying on the evening of 3rd October 1226. On 16th July 1228 he was declared a Saint and the Basilica of St. Francis built for his remains. Lost for centuries, his remains were identified in the 1818 and in 1978 they were confirmed and placed in a glass urn in the original tomb. He continues to be relevant to modern times, environmental issues being at the forefront of our concerns across the world.

Mission Statement: A Caring Christian Family where We Grow Together

The Directors of the Rural Church Schools Academy Trust (RCSAT) are seeking additional non-executive directors to augment the existing team of directors. The role will involve working at a strategic level across all 3 schools in the trust. The voluntary role is one of strategic leadership as well as planning for future growth.

The existing 3 schools are, Warmingham CE Primary, St Oswald's Worleston CE Primary and Bunbury Aldersey CE Primary.

Meetings will be held once per term (November, March and July) with occasional additional meetings and some decisions being made via email discussion. The meetings are held at Warmingham Village Hall.

We are looking for a variety of professional skills. This is an exciting opportunity to be involved with helping to develop primary childrens' education. As a trust, we seek to ensure that every child in our care receives the best possible opportunities.

If you would like further information, please contact Nic Badger EHT@RCSAT.cheshire.sch.uk or Piers Bostock chair@RCSAT.cheshire.sch.uk.

Eco Church

Season of Creation

This is the period in the annual church calendar, from 1st September to 4th October, dedicated to God as Creator and Sustainer of all life.

Many churches choose to use this time of year to hold special services and events to give thanks for God's gift of creation, and to renew their commitment to caring for our one planet home.

*To God the Father, who created the world;
To God the Son, who redeemed the world;
To God the Holy Spirit, who sustains the world;
Be all praise and glory, now and for ever. Amen*

Eco Church

Our first eco service was held last month. Due to print deadlines we will report in due course. The service was the springboard to take us into commencement of the Bronze Eco Church Award. Further awards are Silver and Gold should we be able to meet the requirements of the awards.

Eco Church Awards

There are five areas that we must demonstrate environmental engagement with to receive an award:

- Worship and teaching.
- Management of church buildings.
- Management of church land.
- Community and global engagement.
- Lifestyle.

Keep Updated

Do follow our progress in the Parish Magazine. If you have any suggestions on how we can move to being more sustainable, please let us now.

Can You Help?

Volunteers are needed. If you can spare a little time to do your bit for the Environment and your Community, then please get in touch.

On a lighter note

Three boys are in the schoolyard bragging about their fathers. The first boy says, My dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a poem, and they give him £50. The second boy says, That's nothing. My dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a song, and they give him £100. The third boy says, I got you both beat. My dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, calls it a sermon, and it takes eight people to collect all the money!

Charles Hull

The Queen

The passing of the Queen was a shock to everyone, as we had seen her only two days before, welcoming the new Prime Minister in Balmoral. Surely Liz Truss must never have expected that it was their last meeting, and the Nation never expected it to be the last State function undertaken during the life of the Queen.

It has been a long life, and an incredible time in the public eye. No other Monarch in the UK has been seen on film, TV, photos and digital media almost every day of their lives. She has been quoted, and held up as a role model, during momentous occasions around the world throughout her whole life, from the evacuation of children in World War II to her own Platinum Jubilee this year. She has sought to heal political and social upheavals between the Nations of the United Kingdom and her devotion to duty and peace has seen her travel around the Commonwealth no matter what the circumstances across it's Nations. It will be difficult to remember to sing 'God Save the King' after 70 years of The Queen.

As a Church we will always remember her service to all of us, and her deep faith in Jesus Christ. She could not have done more in her life.

Don't be frightened Ma'am .. the world will be holding your hand.

A personal experience from Isobel Burnley

Although 'The day I met the Queen' is very different from those who have had conversations with her, of course it is memorable for me.

I had the privilege of receiving the Royal Maundy Money on Maundy Thursday 2018. I was hardly alone as 92 men and 92 women were recipients that day. The number matches the age of the monarch so it will be reduced to 74 next year.

There was a wonderful service at St George's Windsor followed by a Reception in the State Apartments, where we were served with sandwiches, cakes and drinks.

There was, of course a strict 'No Cameras' rule but a few weeks later a large sheet of photos arrived from the Royal Almonry Office explaining that they had been taken by a photographer in the organ loft. We could make ourselves out on a few of these so we purchased them. On the photo here you can just see the top of my navy-blue hat. That was the moment when she gave me the purses. She didn't speak - just smiled and I managed a 'Thank you, your Majesty'

That's what we all want to say just now.

Hello again Lilibet ♥

Princess
Sketches

Thank you, your Majesty

It is hard to believe that just 3 short months ago we were celebrating the Queen's Platinum Jubilee and now she has passed. While we mourn her passing we must also remember to celebrate her life, a life dedicated to the service of her subjects following a promise she made at the tender age of 21, while still a Princess.

Released for the Jubilee were many hours of personal film footage which gave an insight to her life previously unseen and showed the fun loving and caring side of her character along with many anecdotes from various people who knew her well, highlighting her sense of humour and mischief.

We should be grateful that we have had her as our figurehead for the last 70 years, and also for the opportunity we had to express our love and thanks to her for all that she has done for the nation, the commonwealth and beyond, during the Jubilee celebrations. As she resumes her place besides her beloved Phillip, her rock, all that is left to say is:

RIP ma'am and Thank You.

The Queen is dead,
Long live the King.

A prayer for His Majesty King Charles III

Upon his accession to the throne, King Charles became Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England.

Lord God,
you provide for your people by your power,
and rule over them in love:
Grant to your servant our King
the spirit of wisdom & discernment,
that being devoted to you with his whole
heart, he may so wisely govern,
that in his time we may live in safety and in peace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

They were successful in both the British Farming and Red, White and Blue categories, gaining second place in both.

Additionally, Annita Grunner, who made the Rustic Oat Biscuits in the British Farming entry, gained a 'Best in Show' for produce and received a silver cup.

Well done to Annita.
